Hostinger or Interweb: which to choose for a website in Mozambique

Comparisons and alternatives · Created on August 16, 2026 · Updated on October 22, 2026 · 2 min read

The right question is not which is better in the world - it is which serves a site built for customers in Mozambique better. Those are different things, and the answer changes with the case.

Side by side

	Hostinger	Interweb
Where your audience is	Better for international audiences	Better for a national audience
National domain	Not listed on the date checked	.mz registered with CIUEM
How you pay	Card, in a foreign currency	Meticais, with a local invoice
When you need help	Global support, another time zone	WhatsApp, ticket and e-mail 24h; phone 08:00-16:00
Panel	Own panel	cPanel, the market standard
Migrating your current site	Automated tool	We do it, free of charge
If you leave one day	Export and go	Export and go - and .mz transfers keep the domain's expiry date and add one year

The verdict, plainly

1. Stay with Hostinger if entry price is the deciding factor, your audience is abroad, and you need neither a .mz domain nor a local invoice.

2. Come to us if the business is Mozambican: you need .mz, you pay in meticais, you want an invoice your accountant accepts and someone in your own time zone.

3. Keep both if you already have something working there. Nothing says you must move what is fine.

Watch the first-year price.
With international hosts the low number is usually promotional and rises on renewal. Always compare the renewal price, not the first invoice - that is what you will pay for years.
