Google Workspace or Professional E-mail: what changes for a Mozambican company

Comparisons and alternatives Created on August 16, 2026 Updated on October 18, 2026 3 min read

Google Workspace is a good product - saying otherwise would be dishonest. The real question is different: are you buying a work platform, or professional e-mail on your own domain? Those are different needs, and they cost differently.

What Workspace does that we do not

1. Shared documents, spreadsheets and slides, with simultaneous editing.
2. Drive for storing and sharing the team's files.
3. Meet for meetings, with an integrated calendar.

If your team lives in those tools, a mailbox does not replace Workspace. In that case, keep it.

What changes when what you need is e-mail

	Google Workspace	Interweb Professional E-mail
E-mail on your domain	Yes	Yes
How you pay	Per user, in a foreign currency, usually by card	In meticais, with a local invoice
Accounting	Foreign invoice	An invoice your accountant accepts
When something breaks	Support in English, through a form	You talk to us, in Portuguese

	Google Workspace	Interweb Professional E-mail
Setting up on a phone	Its own app	Any app, and we help you set it up
Documents and Drive	Yes, that is its strength	No - we are e-mail

We do not publish prices for either here, because they change and an article with stale prices misleads. What does not change is predictability: a price in meticais is the amount that leaves your account; a price in foreign currency depends on the day's rate and your bank's fees.

The decision, in two questions

1. Does the team work in shared documents every day? If so, Workspace.
2. Do you just need e-mail to arrive, with the company name and a local invoice? Then you are paying for far more than you use.

You can have both.
Some companies put management on Workspace and everyone else on mailboxes at their own domain. Same image, much lower cost - talk to us about how to split it.

In our plans

Professional E-mail has the same limits as our cPanel hosting plans, so you can compare it with Workspace on equal terms:

- E-mail accounts are unlimited on every plan, so the number of mailboxes is not what limits you.
- Space: 10 GB on Pro, 20 GB on Plus and 30 GB on Ultra.
- Messages sent per hour: 100 on Pro, 200 on Plus and 300 on Ultra.

To see how much space you use, open Statistics in the cPanel sidebar. To check what was sent, open Track Delivery. If you need more, you can move up a plan or talk to us.
