The short answer: any customer can become an affiliate, free of charge. You switch the programme on in Meu Interweb, get a link of your own, and earn 10% of what the customers who arrive through that link pay, renewals included. When you switch it on you get a 60 MT bonus straight away, and you can ask for a withdrawal once the balance reaches 600 MT.

The programme in numbers

What	How much	Notes
Commission	10%	On what each customer referred through your link pays, on the first invoice and on renewals.
Sign-up bonus	60 MT	Credited to your affiliate balance the moment you activate the programme.
Minimum withdrawal	600 MT	Below that the balance is not lost: it stays and keeps growing.
When a commission counts	When the invoice is paid	An invoice from a referred customer that stays unpaid earns no commission.
Cost to join	None	No monthly fee and no cap on referrals.

How to join

1

Log in to Meu Interweb with your customer account. If you do not have one yet, create it: joining does not require buying anything.

2

Open the Affiliates menu and press Activate Affiliate Account. The 60 MT bonus shows in your balance right away.

3

Copy your referral link, at the top of the same page, and share it. Ideas on where and how in where to share your link.

4

Follow the visits through your link, the sign-ups and the commissions on that same page.

5

When the balance reaches 600 MT, the Request Withdrawal button appears. Our team contacts you to arrange the payment: how to withdraw your balance.

The customer has to arrive through your link and buy in the same browser. If they type the site address by hand, or buy on another device, the referral may not be recorded. The causes and what to do are in a referral that is missing.

Do you build sites for clients? The affiliate programme fits well: the client keeps the account and the invoices in their own name, and you earn on every renewal without invoicing anything. If you would rather own the account and charge your own price, compare it with reselling in affiliate or reseller.
